

Freeze Frame

historic polar images

Meares and Capt Oates at the blubber stove, cooking food for the dogs

Title: Meares and Capt Oates at the blubber stove, cooking food for the dogs

Reference: P2005/5/416

© Scott Polar Research Institute <http://www.spri.cam.ac.uk/>

Reference: P2005/5/416

Title: Meares and Capt Oates at the blubber stove, cooking food for the dogs

Description: glass plate negative. None. Hand written on top of envelope: Similar to 283. Three negatives in the envelope.. Box 8: Popperfoto label on outside of box: H. Ponting. Captain Scott's Antarctic Expedition 1911-1912. 254 - 287. Width 8 inches, height 7 inches, depth 6 inches. Scratched.

Collection: British Antarctic Expedition 1910-13 (Ponting Collection)

Summary text: In the interior of the stable, Meares, smoking a pipe, and Oates sit on sacks in front of a stove on which stands a big metal pot and a kettle.

Date: 5.1911

Keywords: domestic activity huts

Location: Antarctica, Ross Dependency

Photographer: Ponting, Herbert George

