

Freeze Frame

historic polar images

The 'Benjamin Bowring' in Polarbjorn Buchte (on the Greenwich Meridian) where we unloaded our cargo for the Antarctic sector of the Transglobe Expedition

Title: The 'Benjamin Bowring' in Polarbjorn Buchte (on the Greenwich Meridian) where we unloaded our cargo for the Antarctic sector of the Transglobe Expedition

Reference: P2007/16/281

Reference: P2007/16/281

Title: The 'Benjamin Bowring' in Polarbjorn Buchte (on the Greenwich Meridian) where we unloaded our cargo for the Antarctic sector of the Transglobe Expedition

Description: transparency

Collection: Transglobe Expedition 1979-82

Summary text: Six Emperor penguins stand on ice. Ship 'Benjamin Bowring' in background.

Date: 1980

Keywords: steam ships

Location: Antarctica, Dronning Maud Land

Photographer: Campbell, Bryn

PDF created by ContuttoPDF.

© Scott Polar Research Institute